Debutante Luncheon.
One of the most attractive debutante luncheons of the season was given by Mrs. Virginia Newton on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Frances Myers, Miss Elizabeth Preston and Miss Barbara Trigg.

Covers were laid for sixteen around a large round table, the decorations being in pink and green. Pink carnations and mignonette formed the centerpiece, while the chandelier was wreathed in Southern smilax and a small bouquet of pink roses was placed at each place.

Those invited to meet the guests of honor were Misses Mary Crump, Susie McGuire, Edith Taylor, Elizabeth Brown, of Bedford; Fanny Miller, Elsie Ingram, Helen Adams, Eleanor Lindsey, Berta Hamilton, of Petersburg; Anne Keith Royal, Virginia Whiteley, Josephine Elliott, Roberta Trigg and Mary Randolph.

Bagby—Jones.
The marriage of Miss Hazel King Jones to Mr. George Poindexter Bagby was celebrated in the home of the bride, No. 1028 Cathedral Street, Baltimore, yesterday evening, at 8:30 o'clock.

On account of mourning in the family of the bride, the wedding was very quiet, and only members of the immediate families were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alfred Bagby, D. D., of Richmond, father of the groom, and the Rev. John Gardner Murray, rector of the Church of Saint Michaels and All Angels, Baltimore.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Lawrence Jones. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Charles Todd Bagby, as best man. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Jones and the late William H. Jones, and a granddaughter of the late John P. P. Jones. Mr. Bagby is a member of the prominent Virginia family of that name. He studied law at the University of Virginia, and has since practiced his profession in Baltimore. He is a member of the University and Baltimore Country Clubs. He and his bride left Baltimore immediately after the ceremony for a wedding journey.

Hamlin—Savage.
Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Savage, to Mr. Charles Thomas Hamlin, of Blackstone, Va., on Saturday, November 28th, at Littleton, Sussex county, Va.

Wadick—Hosue.
On Saturday, November 28th, Miss Edna A. Hosue, of Richmond, was married to Mr. Malcolm Wadick, of New Orleans, the ceremony taking place at the bishop's residence, Cathedral Place, this city, and the Rev. Father Magri officiating.

Owing to the quiet nature of the celebration, only a few intimate friends were present, Mr. Louis B. Hatke and Mr. James H. Parker being the only attendants.

To Meet with Miss Moran.

meet next Monday evening with Miss Margaret Moran, at No. 838 West Grace Street. Three tables were played last Monday evening, and Mrs. S. W. Travers and Miss Eliza Harvie made top scores.

Meredith—Portner.
Invitations have been received in Richmond from Mrs. Portner for the marriage of her daughter, Etta Vater, to Mr. William Payne Meredith, the marriage to take place Wednesday, June 16th, at 4 o'clock P. M., in All Souls Church, Washington, D. C.

Annual Display.
The ladies of All Saints Church will hold their annual display in the parish house of the church to-day, and a reception committee will be pleased to welcome friends and visitors.

"Rebecca's Triumph."
A three-act play by sixteen popular young ladies of Church Hill will be presented at Corcoran Hall to-night. This extensive cast will be attractive enough alone, but the charming times of the cooking club, with plots and romance, amply interspersed with the fun in Irish Patsy and ducky Sep, will be lively from start to finish.

The play has been rehearsed for several weeks, and will represent the brightest and best of home talent. Miss Belle Pearce will star as Rebecca, while Miss Evelyn Waller, as Mrs. Hakeem, mother, and Miss Pauline Pearce, as Miss Codman, spinster, and Miss Alma Cottrell, as Crazy Meg, are no less brilliant in their roles.

Netting—Word.
The wedding of Miss Ethel N. Word, daughter of Mrs. A. S. Word, of No. 807 East Grace Street, this city, to Mr. Harrison B. Netting, of Montclair, N. J., was celebrated at 5 P. M. Tuesday, in the home of the Rev. Mr. Fishburne, of Washington, D. C., who officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Netting left after the ceremony for Montclair, N. J., and will have their home at No. 45 Church Street, that place.

Literary Round Table.
The Literary Round Table of the Woman's Club enjoyed exceedingly the meeting yesterday afternoon for the discussion of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's recent book, "The Testing of Diana Mallory."

The charm of the book was reflected in the discussion, which proved most attractive to the large number present.

Birthday Party.
The social committee of the Retreat for the Sick have issued invitations for a birthday party to be given in the Retreat parlors from 4 to 7 P. M. to-day. Each invitation contains a little bag, and those attending the party are requested to bring it back filled with pennies, one for each year of their ages.

Meeting of Board.
The regular meeting of the board of managers of the Home for Needy Confirmed Women will be held at the home, 3 East Grace Street, this morning at 11 o'clock.

Personal Mention.
Miss Guillaume has broken up her home at No. 7 East Grace Street, and is now the guest of Mrs. Virginia Newton at No. 608 West Franklin Street.

Miss Gertrude Norton, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned to Alexandria.

Miss Susie Tyler has returned to Fredericksburg after a short visit to friends in Richmond.

Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Todd, who have been visiting relatives here for several weeks, have left for their home in Staunton.

Mrs. Langhorne Putney is in Portsmouth, where she attended the Mackenzie-Ashton wedding, celebrated there Monday evening.

Miss Naomi Walker, of Staunton, is spending the winter with relatives in Richmond.

Mrs. F. H. Martin and sons, who have been visiting relatives in Richmond and Buckingham county, have returned to Charlottesville.

Hon. John Goode, who has been spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Brooke, of Norfolk, has returned to Washington.

Miss Rena Williams, of Staunton, has been the guest of friends in Richmond.

Miss Josephine Booth has accepted a position to teach at New Hope, Spotsylvania county.

Mr. Marion Heath and his mother, Mrs. Ophelia Heath, still remain quite sick at their home, 501 1-2 North Twenty-eighth Street.

Mrs. R. L. McNease left last night for Mississippi, where she will spend the winter with Mrs. C. Garland Hamilton.

Miss Mabel Powell has returned from a visit to her parents in Newport News to the Woman's College, this city.

Miss Virginia Townes, a popular young lady of Danville, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Strathmore J. Owens, No. 1123 West Avenue, returned home Tuesday.

Hopkins—Booker.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HAMPTON, VA., December 2.—The Hampton Presbyterian Church was the scene of a most attractive wedding ceremony at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the Rev. Abner C. Hopkins, Jr., the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Buena Vista, Va., claimed Miss Ethel Booker, one of Hampton's most popular girls, as his bride. The aged father of the groom, the Rev. Abner C. Hopkins, Sr., of Charlestown, W. Va., performed the marriage ceremony. Miss Booker had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Lina Booker. The Rev. Ashland White, of Genardtown, W. Va., was Mr. Hopkins's best man. Messrs. Marshall Booker, Jr., John White, Harry Whiting, of Hampton, and Carroll Garnett, of Richmond, were the ushers.

Mr. Hopkins was until a month ago the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Hampton, and is accounted one of the leading young ministers in the Virginia Synod. His bride is the first daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall A. Booker and is widely popular in the society and church circles here.

After a wedding journey in the North, the Rev. and Mrs. Hopkins will go to Buena Vista to reside here. Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Ashland White, of Genardtown, Va.; Mrs. Charles E. White, of Richmond; Mrs. William Brown, of Baltimore; and Miss Edna Dyer, of Washington.

Jarvis—Journes.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 2.—Harry W. Jarvis and Miss Mary Lillian Journes, of Portsmouth, were married yesterday afternoon in Elizabeth City at the home of Mr. F. E. Ziegler, Rev. E. L. Thompson, of the Methodist Church, officiating. News of the wedding came as a complete surprise to their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis left Portsmouth for Elizabeth City in the morning and returned last night, when they held an informal reception at the home of the groom, Court and Bart Streets. The bride is the daughter of Mr. William Journes, of South Portsmouth.

Hudgins—Moore.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 2.—A very pretty wedding took place to-night at 8 o'clock at St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Portsmouth, when Miss Mary H. DEALERS STILL OBJECT.

Think It Unfair for School Teachers to Sell Supplies.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., December 2.—The greatest stir has been created in this city, led by a number of retailers handling stationery and school supplies, against the Board of Education, because of the sale of paper and other supplies to school children by the teachers of several schools. The matter was brought to the attention of the school trustees, but they approved the sale by the teachers, declaring that it thereby secured uniformity in the materials used, and that the profits were being used to add to the school libraries. But the dealers are still objecting.

To-day Controller Purdie, representing the Board of Control, declared that body opposed to the practice and regretting the fact that they have no power to interfere with the actions of the board.

Merchants declare that it is not fair to allow teachers, who pay no licenses, rent or other expenses, to come in competition with legitimate business.

Mercury's Sudden Drop.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., December 2.—A decided drop in the temperature was experienced here last night, a fall of 31 degrees being experienced in less than twenty-four hours, ending this morning at 8 o'clock. Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock the government instruments registered 60 degrees. During the afternoon a maximum of 66 degrees was experienced. Last night at 11 o'clock there had been a slight fall, but this morning the thermometers registered a maximum of 35 degrees.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

EMPORIA, VA., December 2.—Will Corbell, a negro youth of this county, stole a valuable mule from J. B. Dunn, a white farmer, near Skippers, Va., last week and rode the beast to North Carolina. They boy was caught with the mule and brought to Emporia Monday.

The negro was to-day adjudged insane by a commission of lunacy, and he will be sent to the Central State Hospital at Petersburg for confinement.

Mr. Dunn recovered his property.

In Excellent Condition.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 2.—Returning this morning from an extended trip over the entire Norfolk and Southern system, after examining closely the equipment and facilities for business, Colonel C. H. Hudgins, general freight and passenger agent, George W. Roper, of the Roper Lumber Company, Fred L. Merritt, land and industrial agent, and George V. Randolph, first vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio, reported everything in excellent condition.

Mr. Randolph pronounced the roadbed one of the finest in the South.

Message Commended.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 2.—The annual message of Mayor James G. Cocke, submitted to the Common Council last night, is to-day being commended for the excellent handling of city matters. Mayor Cocke advocates better water supply, a new City Hall, some slight improvement in the Health Department and the improvement of streets in all sections of the city.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:

"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."

Another from Newark, N. J., writes:

"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the
